

SCHOOL YEAR is completed by first pupils in the new Christian Elementary School of the First Lutheran Church on Flower ave. Expanding facilities will allow for a kindergarten and fourth grade class beginning in September.

Jewel Installation of PTA Officers

A large audience attended the final PTA meeting of the school year at 223rd Street School. An inspiring program featured the A-6 class, the school orchestra and chorus and the installation of officers for the next term.

Flag salute was led by Cubmaster Olsen of Pack 735-C which is sponsored by the PTA unit. Mrs. Bardon, musical director, led the school chorus and orchestra in several numbers.

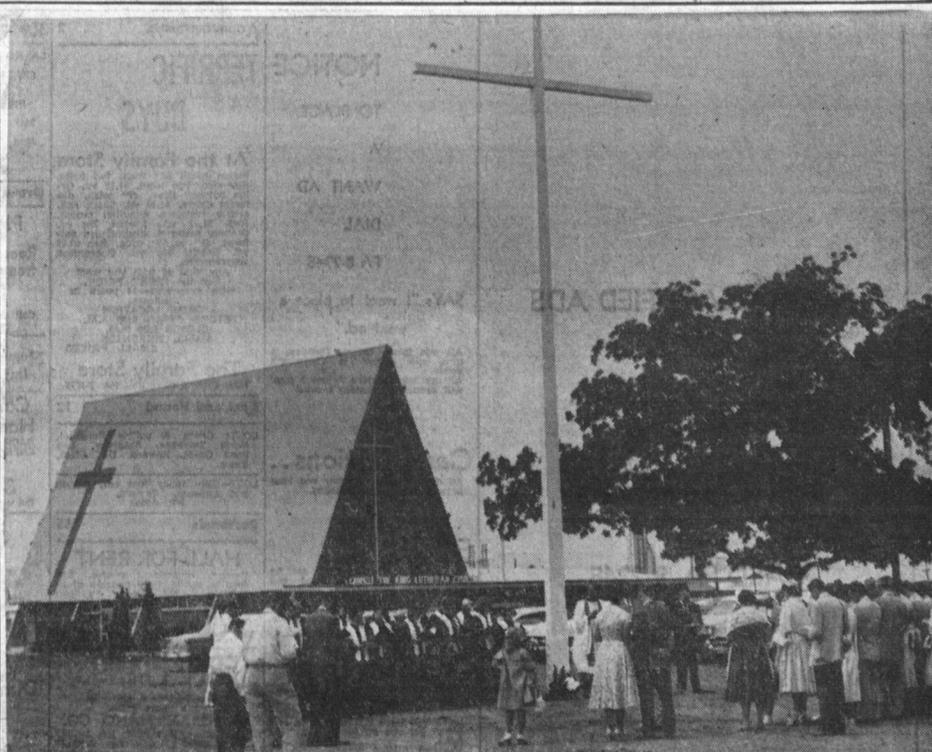

The A-6 class of 119 was introduced and each student told his life ambition.

Jewel Installation
The jewel ceremony was used by Mrs. David Goolsby for installation of new officers.

Mrs. Eleanor Kennedy, principal, was given moonstone; Mrs. Francie Anania, prillamentarian, amethyst; Mrs. Ralph Waring, historian, coral; Mrs. Paul Kelso, auditor, bloodstone; Mrs. C. Laurson, treasurer, ruby; Mrs. Donald King, secretary, sapphire; Mrs. H. Carrol, second vice president, topaz; Mrs. Virgil Johnson, first vice president, pearl; Mrs. James Gonderman, president, diamond. Each new officer received a pair of earrings in the color of the stone for their particular office.

Mrs. Ralph Waring, record book chairman, presented the record book to the outgoing president, Mrs. Francie Anania. Mrs. Fred Trujillo read the historian's report.

At the conclusion of the meeting, parents saw a display of miniature yachts which the fifth and sixth graders made for a regatta held recently in Echo Park.

DEDICATION SERVICE for the 40-foot cross and bulletin board of Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd st., was held June 8. Special music was sung by the senior choir under direction of Robert Cairns. Taking part in the dedication was Henry Gillie, president of the congregation; Major Peterson, board of trustees, head usher Noel, and the pastor, Rev. Maynard V. Midthun.

Choir Robes Gifts of PTA

Stephen White PTA gifted the school with 20 choir robes, samples of which were shown at the last executive board meeting June 12.

Members enjoyed a luncheon and fashion show in Lakewood with Mrs. Oscar Smith, president, and Miss Ruth Erwin as guests. Mrs. Glen Mullen, treasurer, presented Mrs. Smith with a white orchid corsage from the board and Mrs. Smith gave scatter pins to the board members.

Serve Banquet
PTA members who served at the second annual Father-Son banquet June 12 at the school cafeteria, were Mrs. Russell Gilbert, Kenneth Fortney, C. W. Wittenberg, E. N. Reese, Dallas Rasmussen, Henry Runge, Oscar Smith.

Attend Youth Conference

Four young people from Torrance Church of Christ attended the three day Youth Bible lectureship on the George Pepperdine College campus in L.A., June 20-22. They are Barbara Ann Anderson, 2011-Border-ave., Grant C. Clark, 5210 Lillian st., Ginger Hayden, 1313 Fern ave., and Webber, 1653 W. 207 st.

Theme of the youth meeting was "God's Young People" and classes, selected movies, planned recreation and a speaker were featured each day.

Missionary Is Guest Speaker

Rev. Ralph Covell, Conservative Baptist foreign missionary to Formosa, will be guest speaker at South Bay Baptist Church Sunday at both the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services. He is a member of the local church and a graduate of Redondo Union High School. He and his family will soon return to Formosa.

Following the evening service there will be a reception for the Covell family, the fellowship farewell under the auspices of the board of trustees.

Men's Fellowship
The men's fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. for a burger fry at fellowship hall. Special music has been planned and Rev. Covell will be presented with a portable public address system to take back to the missionary field. Purchase of this has been one of the men's projects for the year.

The board of Christian education will meet at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday and a Sunday School workers conference at 7:30 p.m.

From 10 a.m.-9 p.m. Tuesday, the Conservative Baptist Association quarterly rally will be held at Temple Baptist Church in Ontario. A banquet will be served at 6:15 p.m.

July 10 will be a White Cross work day from 10 a.m.-4 p.m., the ladies to meet in the home of Mrs. Austin Thayer, 100 N. Prospect, Redondo. Sack lunch will be enjoyed at noon.

Calvary Baptist Announcements

At duplicate services at 8:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday Rev. H. Earl Kuester of Calvary Baptist Church will speak on the subject "When Love Forgets." This is first of a new series of sermons on "Seven Messages from the Living Christ," taken from letters to the seven Asian churches (Book of Revelation, chapters 2-3).

"Christian Assurances" will be Rev. Kuester's subject at the 7:30 p.m. service. The ordinance of baptism will be observed and vacation Bible school workers will be awarded to 22 who have earned credit in a leadership training class.

The Book of Romans will be studied this July and August during the Wednesday evening prayer meetings.

Barbecue Held
Senior High Guild Fellowship enjoyed a barbecue at the home of Valeria Jones.

President of the Guild, Tina Smith, and Susie Mansfield will attend the Senior High Guild houseparty in Redlands June 30-July 4.

The Men's Brotherhood and the Mariners joined in a picnic for the children of the Baptist Home in Inglewood Saturday.

Twenty-two youth leaders of Calvary will meet for supper and a planning session of summer activities in the home of Juanita Anderson Monday evening.

Senior citizens group will hold a picnic meeting at Torrance Park July 3, meeting at the church at 11:30 a.m.

Milton Koff, recording secretary; Seymour Sorashevsky, corresponding secretary; Jules Ross, treasurer; Bernard Farbman, financial secretary.

The board of trustees for the coming year are Messrs. Leo Goldstein, membership; Alex Abramson, financial; Arthur Pickus, building; Sidney Fried, religious; Mrs. Henry Charney, custodian. Myer Miller, past president, will also be a member of the board of trustees.

Jewish Young Adults Organize for Fun

The Jewish Young Adult Club held its fourth annual potluck dinner Saturday in the Gardena Community Center. On the committee were Mrs. Nathan Kamins and Mrs. Sid Rosenberg.

Young married couples under 40 years of age are eligible to join the club, whose purpose is to plan "strictly for fun" affairs.

Welcomed into Church Membership

Park View Lutheran Church welcomed into membership Sunday, the following people; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Saunders, Mrs. Lois Bass, Mrs. James Molnar, Rex Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Calmer Nord, and Mrs. Russell Craig.

Service Guild Has Dinner Meeting

The Wesleyan Service Guild, auxiliary of Women's Christian Service, sponsored by the Methodist Church, held their regular monthly dinner meeting June 10 at the First Methodist Church.

Accompanied on the piano by Rev. Don Shelby, Edward Hutchison sang a solo, "Jesus Joy of Man Desiring."

Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Ethel Hutchison outlined the planned programs and activities for the coming year.

Mrs. Dorothy Goodale, in charge of devotions, gave an interesting account of the changing pattern in the "March of Missions" and a brief history of some of our pioneer missionaries.

Mrs. Doris Tanher requested all members who plan to attend Guild Week end Training Conference at Redlands University Aug. 2 and 3, to call the secretary, Mrs. Leona Eads, 2232 W. 238 st., at DA 6-0226, for reservations.

The service was closed with singing of several hymns and a prayer. Special guests attending the dinner included Rev. and Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. John Tanner, and Mrs. Mary Alice McCool. From out of town were Miss Dagmar Fredericksen of Archer, Ia., and Miss Ella Fredericksen of Newell, Ia.

Pastor Preaches Farewell Sermon

"It Came to Pass" was the sermon topic of Rev. Don Shelby at the First Methodist Church on his last Sunday with the Torrance church.

He has left to serve the North Whittier Heights Methodist Church. He came to Torrance four years ago from Evanston, Ill. During his stay here he has directed the educational program of the church and has been minister of music for the last three years.

Following his graduation from the Southern California School of Theology at Claremont, he was ordained June 21 by Bishop Gerald Kennedy at the Methodist Church annual conference at Redlands University.

At 8 p.m. members of the church joined in a farewell for Rev. Shelby in the Friendship Room of the church.
